

GENERAL PURCHASING CONDITIONS (non food)

1. General

These general purchasing conditions shall be binding if they are stated as applicable in the HOCHDORF order. The agreement is completed upon receipt of written confirmation from the suppliers that they accept the order (order confirmation). Any other supplier terms and conditions are only valid if they have been expressly accepted by HOCHDORF in writing.

If there is no or no additional agreement to these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase, the provisions of the Swiss Code of Obligations shall apply. If any provision of these general purchasing conditions should prove to be invalid in whole or in part, the parties shall replace this provision with a new agreement that comes as close as possible to the legal and economic intention of the invalid provision.

2. Prices

All prices are in Swiss francs and – unless otherwise agreed in writing – are DDP (Incoterms 2020) Delivered Duty Paid (... named place of destination), insured, taxed and duty paid; this includes all service charges such as packaging, freight, insurance, taxes (VAT), charges, fees and customs duties, which shall be borne by the supplier.

3. Terms of payment

Unless other terms of payment have been agreed in writing, the purchase price is due for payment with terms 14 days 2% discount, 30 days net after delivery of the goods at the place of delivery, provided that HOCHDORF has received a proper invoice.

4. Place of delivery

The place of delivery is Hochdorf/Switzerland unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing.

5. Ownership and transfer of risk

Ownership and risk are transferred to HOCHDORF once the goods are delivered at the place of delivery.

6. Delivery time

If delivery is not made by the agreed date, the supplier is in default after this date. In addition to the statutory claims arising from delay (Art. 103 et seq. OR), HOCHDORF is entitled to claim compensation for delayed deliveries, amounting to 0.5% for each full day of delay but not more than 10% in total, calculated on the contract price of the delayed part of the delivery. The consequences of default pursuant to Art. 190 OR are expressly excluded.

For partial or early deliveries, HOCHDORF is entitled either to reject them or to store them at the supplier's expense.

7. Warranty

The goods must be delivered in defect-free condition and in accordance with the contractual specifications. The packaging of the goods must ensure protection against damage, contamination and moisture during transport and storage and must comply with the relevant environmental regulations.

The supplier shall ensure that the delivered goods do not violate the legal provisions of Switzerland or other applicable laws and regulations.

8. Confidentiality

The supplier will treat all information and documents received from HOCHDORF as confidential and will not make them available to third parties. At HOCHDORF's request, the supplier will immediately return the information or documents to HOCHDORF or destroy them. The provisions of this clause shall continue to apply after termination of the contract.

9. Obligation to inspect and notify defects

The obligations to inspect and notify defects pursuant to Art. 201 and Art. 367 of the Swiss Code of Obligations are waived. HOCHDORF is entitled at any time during the period of limitation pursuant to Section 11 to give notice of defects or breach of warranty of quality.

10. Guarantee claims

In addition to the legally regulated claims for cancellation of the contract, reduction in price and compensation for damages, HOCHDORF is entitled, at its discretion, to demand replacement or repair of the defective goods or goods that in breach of the warranty of quality.

11. Warranty period

Warranty claims expire 24 months after delivery of the goods. If replacement goods or repaired goods are delivered, the warranty period for these goods must be renewed.

12. Termination and withdrawal

In the event of good cause, particularly in the event of a significant delay in delivery or other breach of contract by the supplier, HOCHDORF is entitled to terminate the contract or withdraw from it without any obligation to pay compensation. In addition, HOCHDORF is entitled to terminate the contract at any time with one month's notice. In this case, it must pay the supplier for the goods already delivered and reimburse the supplier's proven, unavoidable costs incurred as a result of the premature termination.

13. Applicable law and place of jurisdiction

The legal relationship between the parties shall be governed exclusively by Swiss law, excluding the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG) and excluding conflict of laws provisions.

The ordinary courts in Hochdorf/Switzerland are exclusively responsible for all disputes arising from this legal relationship.
