HOCHDORF conducts final sales negotiations for land and building in Hochdorf

Hochdorf, 15 November 2021 – At the end of August, the HOCHDORF Group announced the far-reaching restructuring of the group and its intention to concentrate production at the Sulgen site with the corresponding sale of the land and building in Hochdorf. The bidding process that was carried out was accompanied by an external renowned real estate specialist. As of today, Monday, HOCHDORF is conducting the final sales negotiations with the preferred buyers. The municipality of Hochdorf is one of the preferred buyers and, for legal reasons, will hold a referendum on the necessary framework credit for the acquisition.
